Hi team,

We've partnered with Uber for Business as our preferred on-demand transportation provider and for corporate meal solutions while staying in the hotel. That means you will enjoy the benefits of the Uber we know and love for all meals on behalf of NCL.

What does this mean for me?

Benefits Include:

- Earn Marriott Bonvoy Points
- 24/7 Enhanced Support for NCL business accounts

Getting started:

On (day of launch), you will receive an email from Uber inviting you to join the NCL corporate account. Please follow the steps below to get started:

Step 1. Sign In: Sign in with your existing Uber credentials (i.e. your personal email address or cell phone number if you already have an Uber account). If you are new to Uber, create a new personal account here.

A screenshot of the Uber sign-up page. At the top is the Uber logo. Below it is the heading "Sign Up with Uber". The form consists of several input fields: "First name (required)", "Last name (required)", "Enter your phone number (required)" (with a country code dropdown set to "+1"), "Enter your email (required)", and "Enter a password (required)". Each field has a placeholder text and a small icon on the right side of the input box.

Hot tip: If you already have an Uber account, it's best to tap the invitation link from your mobile device because this will automatically open your Uber app to join your business account.

Step 2. Your Business Profile: Check your Uber and Uber Eats apps on your phone to find your new business profile (we've also attached guides below). If you don't have the apps, you can download them for:

- iOS: Uber / Uber Eats

Step 3. Ride and Eat: Make sure to select the NCL profile when ordering meals for business.
